Our Venue

Here at Daydreamers, we have recently undergone extensive renovations to offer a versatile indoor and outdoor space to cater for numerous function styles and sizes. Including corporate EOFY events and Christmas parties to networking events and meetings. We also host milestone birthdays, engagements parties and any other celebration you can think of!

Our events team will work with you to create an unforgettable occasion. Large or small, formal or casual, we cater for all events. With no fuss, our events team will make your function dreams come true.

Our unique function space holds up to 200 guests comfortably, with two options of venue hire and multiple packages to choose from, we are positive there will be something perfectly suited to your event.

We have a comprehensive range of canapes to choose from as well as the option to have impressive grazing platters created by our chefs to cater for your guests.

We are also more than happy to help point you in the right direction with any other details for your event that you may need. We can help you organise entertainment, balloons and décor through our reputable supplier list.

Contact us today to speak to our events team and to arrange a time to view our venue and discuss your next event in detail.

Our Packages

Our multiple function packages have been created so that you can make a decision on a package that is best suited to your event and your personal budget.

All the packages include venue hire, a bar tab, catering and staff.

You can choose to hire the entire venue for larger groups or for smaller, more intimate events you can hire our versatile indoor/outdoor deck space. You will also have options for the catering of your event. You may decide to go with the canape option, or for a more casual, relaxed event the grazing platter option may be best suited to you and your guests.

We would love to arrange a private consultation with you to discuss your event, see our beautiful space and what package might be best suited for you.

Daydreamers Terms & Conditions Contract

Bookings

Daydreamers will hold a tentative booking for 7 days only. If there is another party interested in securing the date, Daydreamers will make reasonable attempts to contact you with the first option to secure the date with a deposit. If we do not make contact with you within 24 hours, Daydreamers reserves the right to revoke the tentative date and we will proceed to secure the date with the other party.

Deposit, Final Details & Payments

In order to confirm your booking, we require a functions booking form to be completed and a returned with a minimum of a 30% deposit paid. Payments can be made via Cash, Bank Transfer, EFTPOS or Credit Card (MasterCard and Visa). The full function payment and final numbers are required to be paid and finalised no later than 7 days prior to the function date. The venue also requires food selection to be made 14 days prior to the event. No function is able to run past 12am. Beverage service will conclude 10 minutes prior to the function end time. Within the function package if the bar tab is not fully used throughout the function duration, the money left over will not be refunded. Once a deposit is paid the agreed upon package is the minimum spend, we do not decrease the originally discussed package price. (This means we don't decrease the package price based off expected guest numbers decreasing.) Under NO circumstance is any client or guest permitted to bring any liquor into the venue for consumption. Non Alcoholic drinks or BYO food must be discussed with the events manager. In the circumstance your bar tab goes over the client is responsible for paying the remaining on the night.

Function Cancellation

Canceling a function after a deposit has been made can only be done by consulting the function manager directly. Any cancellation made will incur in a total loss of the deposit paid. If you cancel your booking 7 days before the event date you will lose the deposit.

Damages & Decor

Clients are financially responsible for any damage, theft, vandalism or breakage caused to the premises, its fittings, equipment and grounds. The client is responsible for any damage caused by their guests and any outside contractors prior to, during or after the event. Nothing is to be nailed, screwed, stapled or fixed to any wall, door or other surface of the building. It's the client's responsibility to remove all decorations before leaving the venue. Should any extra cleaning be required to return to the premises to a satisfactory standard, this will be charged to the client. All equipment, decorations and entertainment must be approved by the venue minimum 7 days prior to the event date. Again if decorations or entertainment is needed to be left at the venue over night you will be charged a reasonable amount for the removal and safe keep of them. Daydreamers reserves the right to disallow anything deemed dangerous or offensive.

Security & client responsibility

It is required that the client will conduct the function in an orderly manner and comply with the requests as directed by venue management. All venue policies, procedures and legal responsibility apply to all persons attending the function at all times. It is imperative that all persons comply with the responsible service of alcohol guidelines and standards. The events manager and security reserve the right to remove any person who is being uncooperative and/or intoxicated from the venue. It is the client/hosts responsibility to read all the terms and conditions to ensure the compliance of all function guests.
